THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1863.

There is a disagreeable apathy on the subject of volunteering in Kentucky, and unless something is done to revive the cause, our State, that never held back before, will be subject to the mortification of a draft. The short time for volunteering is rapidly drawing to a close. If our quota is not filled up by the 5th day of January, then the draft is unavoidable—no further indulgence can be granted. The troops ought to be raised, and that speedily. If every county and section would do but half its duty by bringing into action the proper influences.

The inducements held out are more liberal than have ever before been offered, and, if the war ends as soon as many hope it will, our young men, many of them, will do better in the army than many of them are doing or can do out of it.

We hope something will be done to stir up the proper feeling in this county. If some one would take the matter in hand, we have no doubt but that they would meet with success. A large county like Franklin should certainly be able to raise the small number of 41.

We would call particular attention to the Regimental Orders of Col. Ed. Keenon, in to-day's paper. There was an error as to the date for the election, in our last issue. It should be December 12th and not the 13th, as we had it.

The Kentucky Legislature and the Court of Appeals meet in Frankfort next Monday, and the sessions of both bodies will possess more than ordinary interest. Many delicate and responsible questions will come before the Legislature. For experience, high character, and patriotism, this one will compare favorably with the best; and we look forward to a display of that good sense and wisdom which may best subserve the public interest.

REVENUE.—The rebels who were defeated at Merriweather's Ferry by Captain Frank Moore, had, the day before made a descent upon Hickman, during which they plundered the stores and the houses of several citizens. We learn that these damages are to be repaired by a prompt assessment upon several wealthy sympathizers in that vicinity, who are to be immediately arrested and taken to Columbus for that purpose. This is in pursuance of the orders of Major General Harburt.

RAID ON MOUNT STERLING.—DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.—We learn from Mount Sterling that a band of guerrillas numbering about two hundred, supposed to be the command of the notorious John T. Williams, entered that town about 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning. They burned the Court House, and stole all the horses they could find, including all the stage-horses of Messrs Irvin & Wolverton, and a large number of Government horses. Their stay in the town was very short, and no other damage was done. It is not known what direction they took when they left.

The Massachusetts volunteers, under the new State bounty act, will be the most liberally remunerated soldiers in the world. The amount of bounty and pay for three years' service by one who has previously been in the army nine months, if he has a family of three persons dependent on him be as follows: United States bounty $402, State bounty $325, pay $463, rations $324, clothing $126, and to family $432, making a total of $2,077, and if, instead of $325, in hand from the State, he accepts the offer of $20 per month increase of pay, he will receive $445 more than the sum above.

ACCEPTED.—The resignation of Colonel C. Dunham, Fiftieth Indiana, has been accepted. Continued ill health has prevented Colonel Dunham from being with his regiment for the past five or six months, and his resignation was accepted on account of disability engendered in the service. As the hero of Munfordsville and Parker's Cross Roads, Col. Dunham's name will be conspicuous in the history of the great rebellion.

The Louisville Journal, of Thursday, Dec. 3d, says, we have from undoubted authority that Col. Baird met Wheeler's rebel cavalry somewhere between the Clinch and Holston rivers, whipped him, and drove him toward Knoxville. We have no doubt, as stated in the telegraph this morning, that Wheeler's forces were captured.

TWO OF MORGAN'S OFFICERS CAPTURED.—The Louisville Journal, of Dec. 31, says, Captains Shelton and Taylor, who are supposed to have escaped with Morgan from the Ohio Penitentiary, were arrested near this city last night by the military detectives and lodged in the City Prison. They were brought in at a very late hour, and, consequently, we were unable to learn any particulars.

There is not at this time any organized force of rebels within in the boundaries of Western Virginia. So says Gen. Kelly.

CAPTURE OF DR. PETERS.—The Mobile Advertiser announces that Dr. Peters, who killed Van Dorn, and escaped into the Federal lines, has been captured by the rebels. It states that he was captured at his plantation in Mississippi, and that he professed to his captors that he had been for some time desirous to get back to Dixie, and stand his trial.

FIELD OF OPERATIONS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF THE RAPIDAN.—

From an army correspondent who is in the advance of the Potomac Army: "The country hereabouts is one of the most conceivable for field operations. It is truly named wilderness, for a wilderness of small growth wood covers nine-tenths of the whole surface of the country. So dense are these young forests, that it is impossible to penetrate them, except where paths are. This enabled the enemy yesterday to hover on our flanks, often within sight of moving columns, almost with impunity. It was not until late in the morning that our line on the front was connected so, as to keep straggling parties of cavalry inside our lines. During the day, it was not possible for any small parties to pass between two parallel columns of troops without running the risk of being captured or shot at."

DEATH OF LIEUT. G. D. HUNT.—We regret to learn that our young fellow citizen, Adjutant G. D. Hunt, of the 3d Kentucky, who was wounded in one of the recent battles near Lookout Mountain, died at Chattanooga on Saturday last. He was the youngest son of G. Drummond Hunt, Esq., of this city, and a brother of Lieut. Col. P. Burgess Hunt, who was severely wounded in the battle of Chickamauga.—Obs. & Rep.

FEDERAL COURT.—The Circuit Court of the United States, for the District of Kentucky is now in session in this city. Hon. Judge Catron is in attendance.

The important case of John W. Lee vs. United States is now being tried. It will be remembered that, in November, 1862, Brig. Gen. Shackelford seized $111,000 in gold, bank notes, Treasury notes, &c., in possession of Lee, upon the ground that it was going South, and was the property of one Metcalfe, of Georgia. The United States claims that the money is forfeited, Gen. Shackelford claims one half as informer, and Surveyor Cotton claims a share. Lee claims a share in his own right, and the balance as the trustee of Metcalfe. The case has already been argued by James Speed and John M. Harlan, of Frankfort, for Shackelford; J. K. Goodloe, for the United States; and Nat. Wolfe, for Lee. The argument was to be closed Dec. 2, we learn, by Hon. F. P. Stanton, for Lee. The case involves many difficult and important questions.—Lou. Jour.

"Was I a man," said a New Orleans wench to a darkey, "I'd be seed in soger clothes afore you could say Jack Robinson. You, you're a disgrace to the color, and ought to be a slave forever. Go way, nigger; I see got a contempt for you." "Look a heah, Hannah, sposin' you had two bills, a good one and a counterfeit, which 'un 'o' would you get rid of first?" "Why de counterfeited, of course, you fool," said Hannah. "Well, dat's just it—de white soger is de good bill, 'un de black soger is de counterfeited, and dey puts de counterfeited sojer in de front ranks, and he gets killed off fust! I don't go sojerin' nohow!"

A MONSTER NATIONAL BANK.—A meeting of merchants, capitalists, and bankers took place on Friday evening at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, to organize a National Bank in that city with a capital of fifty millions of dollars. There was a large attendance, and among those present was Hon. Samuel Hooper, M. C. of Boston. The object of the contemplated bank, as stated by Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Controller of the Currency, who made a lengthy speech on the occasion, was that the national banks organized and about to be established would require correspondents in New York, and the provisions of the act were such that it was very desirable, if not absolutely necessary, that these correspondents should also be national banks, inasmuch as three-fifths of the lawful money to be kept on hand by the national banks must be kept with such depositaries in New York and certain other cities.

Some of the students of the University of Michigan had the bad taste to pay Mr. Valandigham a complimentary visit at Windsor, a few days since. In a speech he made to them the great exile declared that "As there are hypocrites in the pulpit, empirics in medicine, pettifoggers at the bar, and pretenders everywhere, so there are demagogues everywhere. A truism of which the students need not have returned to the United States to have found an illustration."

When stretched upon his bed, in an agony of gout, it was reported to Chatham that one of his official subordinates pronounced an order impossible of execution. "Tell him," said he, rising up and marching across the room on his swollen feet, his face streaming with perspiration from the excruciating effort, "tell him it is the order of a man who treads upon impossibilities."

It is reported that General Rosecrans will be assigned to the Eighth Army Corps, Middle Department, lately vacated by the resignation of General Schenck.

LATEST NEWS.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 1. The Morgan-escape excitement increases. The State House is to-day surrounded by soldiers, the supposition being that Morgan is hid. Prominent Democrats were visited last night by spies professing to be Morgan's men. They were immediately reported to the proper authorities.

TORONTO, Dec. 2. The report that Morgan is in Toronto is doubtful. If he is in Canada, he is keeping dark, it is but generally believed that he is here. It was reported in London that he had reached Windsor, opposite Detroit.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. The Star has courteously furnished, in advance of its publication, the following despatches from authentic sources: Cumberland Gap, Nov. 30, 11:50 P. M.—Capt. Byrne repulsed Wheeler's attack at Kingston on Wednesday last. Wheeler then retired toward Knoxville.

Tusculum, Tenn. Dec. 1, 8:30 P. M.—Reports from the outposts this evening concur in establishing the probability that Longstreet is retreating from Knoxville toward Virginia.

The following has been received from Gen. Banks, dated Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 9: To His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States: I am in occupation of Brazos Island, Point Isabel, and Brownsville. My most sanguine expectations are more than realized. Three revolutions have occurred in Matamoros. The first was adverse to the interests of Mexico and the United States. Everything is now as favorable as could be desired.

Great Western Sanitary Fair at Cincinnati, December 31, 1863.

This Fair, in aid of the Cincinnati Branch of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, will be opened with appropriate ceremonies on MONDAY, the 21st day of December next, and continue through the holidays. Arrangements have been made on an extensive scale for collecting and disposing of every article of a saleable nature that may be contributed.

Nothing will be amiss that can aid the Sanitary Commission, either in funds or in any of the stores, so well known to be wanted in the Camp and Hospital. This Branch of the Sanitary Commission extends relief throughout the armies of the Union operating in the West and South-West. It supplies without distinction all who are in those armies, no matter whence they come.

Therefore the far East, and the Central States, will see and feel as well as the West, the grand object to be accomplished by this Fair, and may well join and share with us in this grateful effort, before the rigors of winter beset them, to provide for the wants, and cheer the hearts of their sons, who are with ours in these fields. Each congregation or society, or whatever number, in all the 17 States is invited to select a lady delegate or corresponding member, who will be registered as such, and if an active contributor, will be entitled to a handsomely engraved certificate, commemorative of the occasion, bearing her name and residence.

Contributions from far and wide will be thankfully received: contributions in Money; contributions of every production of the Farmers, Manufacturers, Machinists, Mechanics, Merchants, Clothiers, Jewellers, Milliners, Gardeners; contributions of Music, Decorations, Fruits, Flowers, and Refreshments; contributions or loans for Exhibition in the Fine Arts and Sciences; Relics, Memorials and Curiosities of every sort; contributions of Lectures, Concerts and Dramatic or other Benefits, and to give efficiency to all, a general contribution for the influence of the Press, in furthering our efforts.

Every offering of money which can add beauty, interest, or profit to any Department of the Fair, or be used as material in the work of the Sanitary Commission, will be acceptable. In order moreover that nothing, however small, which even our youth can contribute, may be lost, and general offering, it is requested that Directors and Teachers of Schools, public and private, everywhere, invite their pupils to prepare articles of their own handiwork, which will form a Special Department of the Fair. And above all we invoke the aid and influence of the women of the land, as individuals in their home and social life, as members of their churches, aid societies and other organizations.

The whole arrangements of the Fair, have been assigned to committees, on Finance, Buildings, Machinery and Mechanical Exhibitions, Public Conveyances and Transportation, Merchandise and Decorations, Refreshments, Hall, Gallery of Paintings, Music and Decorations, Floral and Horticultural Exhibitions, Relics, Curiosities and War Memorials, Lectures, Concerts and benefits, each having duties corresponding to their titles. The character of the parties comprising these Committees, a list of whom is hereto attached, is sufficient evidence of their ability to provide extraordinary attractions and accommodations for our visitors and patrons, no matter how large their number.

One of the chief attractions of the Fair, will consist of an immense Bazaar, 400 feet long by 60 feet wide, under charge of the ladies, and devoted to the sale of fancy and useful merchandise. Similar buildings for use as Refreshment, Hall, and Exhibition and Sale rooms of heavier articles of Merchandise, Machinery, &c., &c. Mozart Hall and its ante-rooms have been secured for the purposes of Lectures, Concerts, Exhibitions, &c., &c.

The most liberal terms that could be desired are proffered to our Transportation Committee, by all the Express, Railroad and Steamboat lines centering at this city.

The Dining Hall will be in charge of a Committee of Ladies, who will be able to accommodate in space and variety all who may come. A plan is under consideration for the publication of a complete history of the Fair, from its inception to its close. This is intended to embrace a list of the Officers, Committees, Managers and Corresponding Members, the name of every contributor, a list of the articles donated, and such other matters of interest as may occur, and will serve to give permanency in history to this evidence that the people of the North never forget their brave defenders.

DIRECTORS TO CONTRIBUTORS.—All contributions of money should be remitted to Robt. W. Barnett, Esq., Treasurer. All the Express, Railroad and Steamboat lines, centering in this city, have offered to carry freight for the Fair Free of Charge.

Heavy goods should be sent by Railroad. Light and valuable packages by Express. All articles should be carefully packed, and marked "Sanitary Fair, Cincinnati, O." When articles are donated, a list of the articles, their estimated value, and the donors name and residence, should be sent by mail to John D. Caldwell, Corresponding Secretary to whom all correspondence should be addressed. Articles for Exhibition should be accompanied by directions for their return, similarly addressed.

Special information as to any Department may be obtained by addressing the Chairman of the proper Committee, whose names appear in the annexed list. No further appeal is needed. All hearts will feel and respond to this call. Let no one suppose that enough is or ever will be done in this direction. The Cincinnati Branch of the Sanitary Commission has distributed to the Army nearly $500,000 worth of supplies, and has furnished it; but it has never yet reached the maximum of demands upon it.

Present movements indicate a Winter Campaign of unusual activity and hardship. Let every one do their part, that there may be no want or suffering among our brave soldiers.

JOHN D. CALDWELL, Cor. Sec'y.

CHARGE OF THE MOLE BRIGADE.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, describing the battle of Lookout Mountain, says: I have to record an extraordinary episode that occurred during the battle. Some two hundred mules, packed near Gen. Hooker's lines, broke loose and charged furiously across the field toward where a Georgia regiment was stationed. Thinking it was cavalry, or something else, the regiment broke in confusion and ran, leaving one thousand Enfield rifles of the best description behind them, which Gen. Hooker has to show in proof of the incident.

A hoghead of new tobacco, grown by S. S. Kaggis, of Taylor county, Ky., was Wednesday sold at the Pickett Warehouse in Louisville for the handsome sum of $25 per 100 pounds.

HEAD-QUARTERS KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 28th, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 6. For the information and guidance of all concerned: The President of the United States having issued a call for 300,000 volunteers, the quota assigned to Kentucky amounts to 12,701. This number should be raised by volunteering, for which time is given until the fifth day of January next. Should the enlistments not amount to the required number by that day, a draft will be enforced to make up the deficit.

The accompanying list shows the exact number each County will be required to furnish. Many of these sub-districts have already exceeded their proportions, and consequently no assignment is now made them. The enlistments will be entirely for those Regiments now in the field, and for the space of three years or during the war. A premium of $15 for each new recruit, or $25 for each "Veteran," will be paid the party producing him, as soon as the recruit reaches the place of general rendezvous. Bounties of $302 to new recruits, and of $402 to those who have served at least nine months, will be paid in convenient installments, with advance pay, of which amounting, with advance pay, of $75, will be given the recruit on his arrival at the camp of general rendezvous at Louisville, and before his departure to the field. An earlier expiration of the war will still leave the recruit entitled to his full bounty.

Details from every Company in the service will act as Recruiting Agents in the various sub-districts. Entire harmony of action exists between Maj. Sidel, U. S. A., acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for Kentucky at Louisville, his District Provost Marshals, and the State authorities.

It behooves every man in Kentucky to labor for the accomplishment of this common good, to assist in enlisting recruits sufficient to obviate the draft, which is sure to follow if we are delinquent in this duty. Let every one lend himself to this patriotic purpose—let every neighborhood respond in the most triumphant manner to this great moral and philanthropic obligation. Let every County determine to be among the first to satisfy this demand of justice, equality and law. Those noble districts which have made records so proud as to exempt them from the requirements of this order, may write their history in still brighter colors by continuing their contributions to our ranks.

Let it be remembered that, in some manner, our quota must be raised—that volunteers receive large bounties and drafted men receive none—that for every new recruit returned to the Provost Marshal $15, and for every one who has served nine months $25 will be paid the party producing him; that to the fifth of January, 1864, only is given the privilege of filling our quota by voluntary enlistments, and that then will follow an inexorable draft bearing in its train neither bounty nor honor.

By order of the Governor: JOHN BOYLE, Adjutant General of Kentucky.
